Invite and bring friends! A panel of esteemed experts will share their personal experience and extensive knowledge, answering your questions about the threat and the response to radical Islam.

Philip Haney: Founding member of the Dept. of Homeland Security, high-level counter terrorism agent and eventually a government whistleblower, when he refused to violate his oath of office — Mr. Haney is author of the bestseller, “See Something, Say Nothing” and will share his vast knowledge on threats and solutions.

Anni Cyrus: From a child bride, abused spouse and imprisoned teen in the Islamic Republic of Iran, to becoming an American Citizen and civil rights leader, Ms. Cyrus is a champion for women and girls wanting to be safe and free. Anni will share her remarkable story and provide a unique perspective on the plight of women and girls under Sharia.

Samya Johnson: Born in Beirut, Labanon, Samya lived through a civil war between Muslims and Christians. Saved from death three times, while watching her friends and neighbors be killed, God was still at work, healing her brokenness and enabling her to forgive and love.

The miracle of redemption in her own life grew into a lifetime commitment to bring the Gospel to Muslims while training and educating the Western Church about Islam and reaching its followers.

Samya and her husband Mike founded Call of Love Ministries which produces effective equipping resources for Christians and have just launched a 24/7 Christian TV Channel that can reach over 600 million Muslims worldwide!

This is a rare opportunity to learn from extremely knowledgeable experts on the front-line of the spiritual and political battle that is being waged all around us.

Come prepared to learn, purchase some materials and if you can, support their work!
